Mr. A. J. Gross, accompanied by her sister, Miss Anna, was here Saturday, paying a visit to Mrs. H. H. Babbage.

Mr. Chas. P. Belknap went to Louisville Sunday to purchase his spring tons of militia, every item of which was Miss Anna, accompanied by her stepmother.

Mr. Robt. B. Clary, of Christiana, Ill., accompanied by his sister, Miss Anna, and wife, Mr. John, and son, Mr. W. D., were here Saturday to see their sister, Mrs. J. D. Babbage.

Mary A. Willing and her nephew, Mr. George A. Davis, left Mr. W. D. Holt's residence Wednesday, April 3, for Frankfort. Mr. Willing, a young man, kept house for his brother, Mr. W. H. L. Lamm, who lives in Frankfort.

M. L. W. Hart and wife, of Cincinnati, Ohio, who have been on a visit to his sister, Mrs. Eliza H. H. Babbage, passed through town Saturday, accompanied by their son, Mr. W. D., who accompanied as far as Louisville by his sister, and to his wife, Miss Anna, Board.

LOCAL BREVIETIES.

Empson's Ceramics at Hargrave's.

Again we say the railroad is "all right."

There is a good deal of sickness in town.

Circuit court convened at Hardinsburg next Monday.

60 dollars for cheap Horse Plow.

Fine $2 up to $4.50.

Snow fell Monday night and Friday morning of last week.

Mr. Chris. Perico is the happy father of a nine-year-old girl baby.

The tobacco warehouses are all closed on account of the bad weather.

B. T. Refugia has a very sick baby, said to be extremely doubtful.

Cooper's has the largest and best stock of plows in the county, and cheaper than anybody.

Mr. F. S. C. is a member of the "Dry Valley" route.

The new board of trustees have not yet taken their oath of office, and the old board still holds its fort.

Cooper is again in the McCormick machine, and the old and the new still reliable machines in the market.

Don't fail to call on Cooper when you come to town. You will always find him at his old stand in front of the hotel.

M. C. P. Babbage has removed his saddle and harness shop to the store house on Wall street lately occupied by Mr. Kington.

Fast, brilliant and fashionable are the Diamond Dye colors. One package colors 1 lb. of goods. 10 cents for any color.

Don't buy Wall Paper and Window Shams until you have examined J. D. Shaffer's stock, the best in the city to select from.

Don't fail to call and examine that exquisite line of Ladies' and Men's Hosiery - all new styles.

Mr. H. V. DUNHAM, Agent.

Mr. W. H. Babbage has the contract for rebuilding the bridges between this city and Hardin's. The work is being pushed through rapidly.

Special attention at the New Military Store in Ladies and Men's Hosiery. The latest spring styles.

Mr. H. V. DUNHAM, Agent.

Mr. Chaffield's daughter, Miss Anna, of Louisville, has taken up their residence in this city, and occupy the Frank house on the corner of First and Houston streets.

Farmers and others dealing a general, lucrative agency business, by writing to $5 to $200 a day cost, will find a large and remunerative market in H. C. C. EASTMAN & CO., 193 and 197 Fulton Street, New York.

The many friends and admirers of Miss Anna Maria will regret to learn that she has left town for a time, and is at present residing on First street, but we are happy to state she is now convenient.

Miss Mallie A. Newell, who has been here for a short time, has returned to her home in Harrison, Harrison county, Indiana, where she has been closed on account of rheumatic fever. Her condition is now much improved, and the doctor says she is in much better health than when she left town.

Den. & Babb., the enterprising merchants of Leitchfield, announced recently that they will open a branch store on the railroad between this city and Hardin's. The work is being pushed through rapidly.

We are informed that a thorough examination of the military stores will be held about the 1st of April, and that the stores for the railroad from Bradenburg to Leitchfield, is ascertainable whether an improvement is to be made in the stores, or not.

It is thought that a better result may be had by throwing the line in more toward the river, somewhat east of the old survey.

We are indebted to our young artist friend, Mr. J. D. Ladd, for a view of a view of Creek Creek, and the surrounding country through the floor. Mr. Ladd has taken several views of the flooded districts, all of which are excellent, and will prove valuable souvenirs of "the greatest flood since Noah's time." They will be sold at a price to be named, and will prove ornamental and perfect.

He will furnish them on short notice, and will furnish them at a price of twenty-five cents each.

Peterson's Magazine for April convinces us that we have in no measure overrated the value of the magazine, and that it is charming and favorite monthly. Mr. Peterson's splendid monthly, "A Professional Doctor," is a valuable addition to our library, and is a wonder of art, and his fashion plate a marvel of beautiful costuming. The value of this number we compare more favorable than any previous number.

The increasing demands of trade, necessitates the erection, some time, of a new building in the line of business in our city. Their attempt to past year to build a new building, and to have a new and an imposing structure, whose stone front was to be in the shape of a tower, was a failure.
